important labour in which you have so well spent your life, how gratifying it must be to you & all your friends that having put off your harness for a time you are able to enjoy a visit to the scenes & friends of former days on this side the Atlantic.

I rejoice to see the heartiness & respect with which you are welcomed — it is your due & also an evidence of the triumph of right over might & the speedy downfall of hateful Slavery, the world over.

My Dear Friend Wm Lloyd Garrison

Your welcome letter of the 12th inst was duly received at my office. I regret that having been absent from town prevented me from replying earlier.

I do most sincerely & cordially Congratulate you on your present visit to Europe in Company of yr only daughter & youngest son I trust that it may accomplish one purpose for which you undertook it, the Reestablishment of your health. After the arduous
